

Andrew Ledigo

56 Aberdeen Road, London N5 2XB - 07896965169 - aledigo@hotmail.co.uk

EDUCATION

Oxford University — Masters of Computer Science

October 2014 - Present

- 2:1 in first year and second year exams with 65 average.
- Courses including Algorithms, Databases, Computer Security and Machine Learning.

Highgate School, London

September 2003 - June 2013

- A Levels - Maths (A*), Chemistry (A*) and History (A).
- GCSE - 11 A* including Maths, English, Spanish & Sciences.
- Academic Scholarship

EXPERIENCE

White and Case LLP, London — IT Support Analyst

June 2015 - August 2015

- Summer Internship. Developed skills in setting up and maintaining IT hardware. Loaded software and deployed ~ 600 corporate iPhones. Interacted on a daily basis with employees throughout the entire organisation.

IBM, London — Client Support Manager

July 2013 - August 2014

- Gap year role based in IBM technical support. Monitored Hardware and Software contracts with multiple clients, ensuring high customer satisfaction and optimal costs. Worked efficiently as part of a small team to tight deadlines. Acquired experience in sales, finance, excel and computer programming.

PROJECTS

Blockchain Project — In Progress

- Building physical Bitcoin computers that participate in blockchain hashing and can accept and make machine-to-machine payments using Bitcoin autonomously.

Data Analysis Tool — Team Project completed May 2016

- Built software to analyse big data sets of internal transactions for Bank of America, creating our own matching algorithm and returning insights accessible to non-technical analysts.

VOLUNTEERING

- Computer Science Ambassador for Oxford University Department. Delivered a talk on 'a day in the life of a Science Student' to ~300 prospective applicants. Led learn to code sessions for state school pupils.
- Taught Maths at a Primary School for 7 months.

SKILLS

- Excel, Word, Powerpoint, Java, SQL, Scala, Haskell, Oberon.

INTERESTS

- Basketball, Dance - Salsa and Ballet, International Film Society, Rugby.